GRINGLEY TB Children's Hospital 1918-1928

OBJECTIVE: To collect, collate and analyse information about the TB Children's Hospital (now Gringley Hall) in the decade following the Great War, and then to present and publish the resultant story as part of the Nottingham Heritage Forum's initiative "Fighting for Our Inheritance".

PROPOSED OUTPUTS:

A printed monograph A5 booklet
Temporary exhibition display at local library, museum or hospital, GP surgery or all of these.
Possibly a mobile museum.
Possibly a short DVD presentation based on the above
Activity packs for current school children
Others that might occur to us as we progress
Local radio

Project Timescale:

Started in March 2017 and be complete by July 2018, but we are one of six different strands of Nottinghamshire Heritage Project being collated from January 2018.

The Project is being jointly led by Sharon & Michael Keeble with Alan Hickman. We are being financially supported by the Heritage Forum with mentoring help provided by Bassetlaw Museum.

How can I help?

Volunteering to check out ONE or more of the following identified sources of information:

Parish Council records - believed to be in Nottinghamshire Archives
Retford Library (specifically Retford Times etc.)
Nottinghamshire Archives
Health Board - predated NHS from 1920
Sylvia Clubley (John's Widow) - in progress
Laycock family survivors
Wiseton Hall
Welbeck Estates (Duchess of Portland's support)
TB research - medical expertise

Or anything else of possible relevance!
